REPORT.

STATE OF MICHIGAN: }
ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
Lansing, January 1st, 1879.

TO THE LEGISLATURE:

In obedience to the requirements of law, I beg leave herewith to submit my annual report.

The suits to which I attended on behalf of the State in the State Supreme Court are fully set forth in Schedule "A," annexed to this report.

Unless the questions involved were of public importance, or of a nature calling for legislative action, I have not deemed it necessary to state the point decided.

I desire to direct your attention to the case of Brown vs. The People, decided at the last June term.

I recommend that a distinction be made between a common and an aggravated assault. As the law now stands there is no middle ground between an assault with intent to kill and murder, and a common assault. It seems to me that the case of Brown affords a sufficient argument for the enactment for severer penalties than now exist against assaults of a character which are instinctively recognized as of a graver character than a simple assault and battery. Some of our sister states have by statute made a distinction between a common and an aggravated assault.

I also invite your special attention to the case of The People on the relation of the Treasurer of Gratiot County vs. The Auditor General, also decided at the June term.

Schedule "B" is a list of chancery cases brought to set aside taxes and assessments upon the alleged ground of illegality. The Auditor General is a mere nominal party to these cases. They have been referred to the Prosecuting Attorneys of the respective counties, in accordance with the long established practice of this office.

This office is constantly applied to by private parties for leave to prosecute suits nominally in the name of the people in the relation of the parties really interested. I have in all cases required application to be made in writing, stating the nature of the case and the relief sought to be obtained. These applications are on file in this office.

Schedule "C" contains a list of cases thus authorized to be instituted by this Department.

An abstract of the reports of the several Prosecuting Attorneys throughout the State, as made to this office, is submitted in the Appendix.

The suit pending in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Michigan, at Detroit, mentioned at page 4 of my last official report to the Governor, involving the constitutionality of No. 173 Public Acts, 1873, imposing a tax upon the gross receipts of fast freight lines, palace-car lines, &c., has been determined in favor of the State. The point raised was that inasmuch as the transportation company was engaged in carrying goods from one state to another, the act in question, if extended to operate upon the company, would violate that part of the constitution of the United States which remits to Congress the power of regulating commerce between the states.

The case was begun during the administration of my predecessor in office. He employed Mr. Ashley Pond of Detroit to defend the interests of the State. On coming into office I found Mr. Pond in charge of the case, and he was permitted to bring it to a successful end. Whatever credit is due for bringing about a result so valuable to the State, belongs entirely to Mr. Pond.

Samuel B. W. Covill, charged with robbing the safe in the office of the Superintendent of the Sault St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal about two years ago, was tried at the August term of the Chippawa Circuit, and acquitted.

A settlement of the accounts between the State and Frank Gorton, late Superintendent of the Canal, showed Mr. Gorton in default for nearly $2,000.00. An action upon the Bond against Gorton and his sureties is now pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne, at Detroit. Owing to the large amount of accumulated business in the Court, I have not been able to reach the case. Gorton has allowed a judgment, by default, to be entered against him, but his sureties are determined upon a stubborn defense.

Last summer the Commissioner of the State Land Office employed Mr. Menzo Swart to examine into and adjust certain trespasses committed upon State Lands.

Mr. Swart charged one McElroy with the commission of trespass and concluded a settlement on payment of $2,100.00 in good commercial paper, and payment of actual expenses incurred in examining into the alleged trespass. The notes are now in the hands of the State Treasurer. Shortly before the maturity of the notes in September, McElroy filed a Bill in Chancery against the Commissioner of the State Land Office and Swart, and obtained a preliminary injunction forbidding the collection of the notes on the alleged ground of fraud perpetrated by Swart in procuring a settlement.

I have taken steps to defend the suit, and it is now ready for hearing.

From a careful examination of the circumstances of the case, I think that Mr. Swart acted honestly and in accordance with what seemed to him for the best interests of the State.

I cannot, however, pass by this matter without urging upon you the necessity of providing by statute in an ampler manner than has heretofore been done for the examination and adjustment of trespasses upon public lands and for the appointment of some competent person charged with the performance of this duty, subject to the direction and approval of a State Board.

In the latter part of last February the State Treasurer called my attention to the fact that the Chicago and Lake Huron Railroad Company was in arrears in the payment of its specific taxes, to the amount of about $30,000. The road was then, had been, and is now, in the hands of a Receiver, appointed by the United States Circuit Court at Detroit, at the suit of the Union Trust Company of New York. I obtained an order calling upon the Receiver to show cause why payment of the tax should not be made. The Receiver answered. In May the court made an order, fixing the amount of tax due March 5th, 1878, at $30,882.78, and declaring the same, together with a penalty of two per cent a month for every month, or fraction thereof, during which the tax remained unpaid, a lien upon the road paramount to all other liens. The Receiver was directed to pay the tax, interest, and penalty, out of the first money arising out of the sale of the road under a foreclosure decree which had been entered in the cause. It was then represented to me that the road would be sold in July. In November it became evident to the State Treasurer and myself that the sale of the road would be delayed, and no disposition was manifested on the part of the Receiver to meet the obligations due the State. Accordingly I again applied to the Court, and on the fourth day of November obtained an order for the payment of the money in thirty days, and that in default of payment the Auditor General be authorized to collect the tax. Before the expiration of the thirty days the Receiver, by his counsel, applied to the Court for an enlargement of the time within which to pay the tax, claiming all the time that he was using every means to raise money with which to pay the tax. Pending an adjournment, granted to enable the Receiver to borrow the money, a petition was filed by him, praying for an injunction upon the ground of an alleged illegality of the tax. On the 24th day of December the matter again came up in the United States Court, when the Court gave the Receiver to the following Saturday (28th), to pay the tax, and in default of such payment, the State was authorized to seize the road. On the 27th day of December the Receiver paid the full amount of the tax and interest ($30,882.78) into the Treasury. The State authorities were willing to wait for the penalty ($6,176.55), until the Legislature might have an opportunity to pass upon an application to be made by the Receiver to be relieved of the penalty incurred by the non-payment of the tax.

In this connection I must not omit to mention the fact that the Receiver failed to make any report to the Auditor General of the gross earnings of the road for the year 1877, and that the Auditor General has imposed upon the road an additional tax of $7,224.67, due July 1st, 1878, and a demand for the same was served upon the Receiver on the 19th of December following.

I have been so particular in detailing the various steps in this litigation, that the Legislature might be advised of all the consideration which might bear upon the claim of the Receiver to be relieved from the consequences of his own default. It is, perhaps, but just to the present incumbent of Receivership to state that the whole amount of tax paid on the 27th ult., accrued during the administration of his predecessor.

I deem it my duty to say that the interests of the State require the immediate action of the Legislature upon the claim to be relieved of the penalty. If the Legislature are of opinion that the penalty should not be remitted, I suggest the adoption of a joint resolution directing the Auditor General to issue his warrant for the collection of the penalty, and to have it executed with all possible dispatch.

The greater part of the line of the Chicago and Lake Huron Railroad Company remains unfenced. It runs through a farming country. The result is that accidents and damage to live stock are of frequent occurrence. Our very efficient Railroad Commissioner has called my attention to the matter, and I made application to the United States Court to direct the Receiver to fence the road. The Receiver replied he had no money. Pending the collection of State taxes it was difficult to make headway in the matter, but it is not creditable that the present state of things is permitted to exist. No proceedings can be taken against the Railroad Company because the railroad is operated by a Receiver, and our statutes are not broad enough to bring private persons operating lines of railway contrary to law within their penal provisions.

I recommend the enactment of laws making it a highly penal offense for Receivers or other persons, no matter from whom or whence they have authority, to operate any line of railway in defiance of the police regulations established by the statute for the protection of her citizens.

I have begun an action in the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne, for the recovery of a large amount of specific taxes claimed to be due the State from the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company. I do not deem it proper at this stage of the case to say anything further than that it will in all probability be tried next spring.

The large amount of documents accumulated in our Department since its organization have, during the past year, been systematically arranged, classified and indexed by my clerk, Mrs. Mary A. Miles, who deserves great credit for the thoroughness and care with which her work has been done.

In conclusion I desire to call your attention to the small allowance made for clerk hire in this office. This is the only Department in which the head is limited in the number of clerks he may employ. The present law allows only $1,000 for one clerk. The large amount of work done in this office has necessitated the employment of two clerks, who have divided the small pittance of $1,000 between them. I recommend and urge upon you the enactment of a law authorizing the Attorney General to employ at least two clerks at $1,000 a year each.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

O. KIRCHNER,
Attorney General.

SCHEDULE A.

JANUARY TERM, 1877.

1. David Wright and Nellie Wright vs. The People. Error to Recorder's Court of Detroit. Continued.
2. Henry H. Saunders vs. The People. Error to Recorder's Court of Detroit. Judgment reversed.
3. The People vs. Sylvester Walker. Exceptions before judgment, from Lenawee Circuit. New trial ordered.
4. Burton Hawley vs. The People. Error to Superior Court of Grand Rapids. Attorney General confesses error.
5. William Sneed vs. The People. Error to Van Buren Circuit. Attorney General confesses error, and claims a new trial should be had. Counsel for plaintiff in error asked for discharge of prisoner, claiming that information was insufficient. Judgment reversed, information sustained, and new trial ordered.
6. James Darling vs. The People. Error to Saginaw Circuit. Attorney General confesses error.
7. Annie Stephens vs. The People. Error to Alpena Circuit. Continued.
8. George W. Ryder vs. The People. Error to Osceola Circuit. Judgment affirmed.
9. The People vs. James Finley. Exceptions before judgment from Newaygo Circuit. Argued and submitted, and judgment reserved.
10. The People vs. Thomas Lilly. Exceptions before judgment from Cass Circuit. Brief submitted on behalf of Lilly. Verdict set aside and new trial ordered.
11. Matter of the petition of Esther Coffeen to be released from imprisonment on habeas corpus. Petitioner had been convicted of arson in the Superior Court of Grand Rapids, and sentenced to State Prison. Petitioner claimed that under § 8165 Comp. Laws, the Court had no authority to send her to State Prison, but should have sentenced her to imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction. The Court, after hearing argument as to the construction of the statute in question, declined to entertain the application, and intimated that the question would be considered only on writ of error.
12. The People vs. Charles Brown. Exceptions from Superior Court of Grand Rapids. New trial ordered.
13. The People vs. Emily U. Marble. Exceptions before judgment from Ingham Circuit. Exceptions overruled and the Circuit Court directed to sentence. Subsequently in the term, a motion was made for leave to apply to the Court below for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence. The Court held that inasmuch as more than one term of Court had intervened since the trial, the Court below had no power in a criminal case to award a new trial.

APRIL TERM.

1. The People vs. James Finley. Exceptions before judgment from Newwayo Circuit. Exceptions overruled and judgment directed on the verdict.

2. Clinton Nelson vs. The People. Error to Wayne Circuit. Nelson was convicted in the Circuit Court of the larceny of property of less value than $25. He was sentenced to ten months imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction. Held that § 5566 Compiled Laws restricts § 7569 so as to limit the Circuit Judge to the same sentence which it is in the power of a justice to impose for the same offense, and that the sentence in excess of three months is void.

JUNE TERM.

1. Annie Stephens vs. The People. Error to Alpena Circuit. Attorney General declined to support the conviction. The Court reversed the judgment and awarded a new trial.

2. The People vs. David and Nellie Wright. Exceptions before judgment from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Exceptions overruled and the Court directed to proceed to judgment.

Thos. Brownbridge vs. The People. Error to Van Buren Circuit. Brownbridge had been convicted of an assault and battery before a justice of the peace, who sentenced him "to pay a fine of thirty dollars, and in default thereof to be committed to the common jail of the county for the period of thirty days." The Court discusses the validity of the sentence in various aspects, holding it to be void for various reasons. The important point decided is that under existing statutes a justice has no power to impose an alternative sentence, providing for a penalty or imprisonment.

3. Aaron Brownell vs. The People. Error to Branch. Brief submitted on behalf of plaintiff in error. Judgment reversed. Brownell released from State Prison and remanded to custody of sheriff, with bail fixed at $1,000.

4. Joseph H. Brown vs. The People. Error to Recorders Court of Detroit. Judgment affirmed.

5. The People vs. Xavier Bringard. Exceptions before judgment from Wayne Circuit. Exceptions overruled and the Circuit advised to proceed to judgment. The case was one of considerable importance. Bringard had been treasurer of the township of Grosse Point, and was charged with embezzling a large sum of the township money. The following important points were established:

(a.) That it is not necessary that the information should contain specific allegations of the sums embezzled.

(b.) That the jury are authorized to find embezzlement from the receipt of moneys without keeping any account of receipts and expenditures, a refusal to account; and no payment of moneys to the succeeding treasurer.

6. The People vs. Josiah Bennett. Exceptions before judgment from Lenawee Circuit. The Prosecuting Attorney of Lenawee county argued the case for the People. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.

7. William Brown vs. The People. Error to Recorders Court of Detroit.

Brown was charged with an assault with intent to commit a rape upon a child of tender years. The jury found him guilty of a simple assault, and the Recorder sentenced him to one year's imprisonment. The Court held that the offense of which Brown was convicted, being within the cognizance of a Justice, the Recorder had no power to sentence him for a longer period than a Justice of the Peace might have done, and that a Justice has no power to sentence for a longer term than three months. The judgment as to the imprisonment in excess of three months was reversed.

8. Edward Bickford vs. The People. Error to Superior Court of Grand Rapids. Judgment reversed, and prisoner discharged under ruling in Byrnes vs. The People, 37 Mich.

9. Lewis Faulks vs. The People. Error to Eaton Circuit. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered. Faulks was convicted of the statutory offense of selling liquor to a minor. The Circuit Judge charged the jury that if Faulks had reason to believe, and did believe, the minor to be of age, he would nevertheless be guilty of the statutory offense. The Court held this ruling to be erroneous.

10. William Donnolly vs. The People. Error to Superior Court of Grand Rapids. The case came within the ruling in Braconbridge vs. The People, and judgment was reversed.

11. Austin DeGroat vs. The People. Error to Ionia Circuit. Conviction set aside and prisoner discharged.

12. Charles Humphrey vs. The People. Error to Lenawee Circuit.

Humphrey was sentenced for a State Prison offense to the Detroit House of Correction. The Court, in Dorsey vs. The People, at the April term, 1877, decided that in the absence of a contract between the Board of Inspectors of the State Prison and the City of Detroit, no person could be sentenced to imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction for an offense punishable by imprisonment in the State Prison. There being no such contract, the judgment was reversed and the prisoner discharged.

13. Willard H. Chapman vs. The People. Error to Ingham Circuit. Judgment reversed and prisoner discharged because of a defective information.

14. The People ex. rel. Ambler, County Treasurer of Gratiot County vs. The Auditor General. By Sec. 124, No. 169, Public Acts, 1869, (afterwards repealed by No. 224, Public Acts of 1875,) it was provided that all State tax lands remaining unsold for five or more years from the time such lands had been bid off to the State, should be offered for sale to the highest bidder without reference to the minimum as established by law or the cost to the State, of each parcel, in taxes, interest, and charges; and that if any parcel of the land so offered shall be sold for less than the amount for which it was bid off to the State, then the proper county shall be charged with the difference between the sum for which such parcel was sold and the amount for which it was originally bid off to the State.

At the October term 1876, my predecessor in office applied to the Supreme Court on behalf of the Auditor General, for an order, calling upon the board of supervisors of the county of Monroe, to show cause why a mandamus "to compel the county of Monroe to raise a state tax to refund to the State a balance struck against the county, which includes, among other things, a loss on state tax lands sold for less than their cost," should not issue. (See the case reported in 36 Mich. p. 70.) The order to show cause was granted, and the case was argued at the then next January term, by my predecessor in office, and Mr. Charles Upson.

The Court declined to issue the mandamus, holding that the Act of 1869 applied only to such taxes as might be levied after its enactment, and that inasmuch as the act was repealed before it became operative, no action could be taken under it.

In view of this decision several counties in the State claimed that the amounts charged to them by the Auditor General under section 124 of the act of 1869 should now be credited to them, and the case of the county of Gratiot was made a test case for the purpose of determining the question. It was presented on an application for a mandamus to compel the Auditor General to give the proper credits, and to draw his warrant for the payment of any balance in favor of the county.

The Court denied the mandamus for the following reasons:

(a.) That the proceeding was substantially one to recover back from the State money paid into the State Treasury, and held there originally under a mutual mistake of law, both parties acquiescing, and both being under the same misapprehension.

(b.) That the payment was in pursuance of an adjustment of accounts by the head of an executive department of the State whose action is not judicial, and is not therefore subject to any direct proceedings for review in this Court or elsewhere.

OCTOBER TERM.

1. Michael Ulrich vs. The People. Error to Saginaw Circuit. Judgment affirmed.

2. The People vs. Leopold Dunkel. Exceptions upon judgment from Cass Circuit. Judgment arrested and prisoner discharged. The Court hold that felonious assaults where only personal injuries are intended, are not covered by § 12, Art. 4, of the Act of 1873, Session Laws, p. 537.

3. The People vs. George Cook. Exceptions before judgment from Washtenaw Circuit. Cook had been convicted of murder. Exceptions overruled and Court below advised to proceed to judgment.

4. Henry Thomas vs. The People. Error to Ionia Circuit. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.

5. The People vs. Rockwell. Exceptions to Midland Circuit. Rockwell had been convicted of manslaughter. The Court had instructed the jury "that respondent would be guilty if he knocked the deceased down and a horse jumped on him or kicked him, and thus killed him." The evidence was fully set out in the record. The Court set aside the verdict and advised the Court below to stop the prosecution.

6. The People vs. Henry W. Winslow. Exceptions before judgment from the Recorder's Court of Detroit. Exceptions overruled and Court below advised to proceed to judgment.

7. The People vs. John Gordon. Exceptions from Recorders Court of Detroit. Attorney General confessed error and was ready to submit to a new trial. Defendant's counsel moves for discharge of prisoner. Exceptions sustained and new trial ordered.

8. The People vs. Simon Goldberg. Exceptions from Recorders Court of Detroit overruled, and Court advised to proceed to judgment.

9. Julia Cargen vs. The People. Error to Saginaw Circuit. Conviction for murder sustained.

10. George Edwards vs. the People. Error to Washtenaw Circuit. Edwards pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny. The statute (Laws 1877, p. 140) requires the Circuit Judge whenever one pleads guilty to an information, to make investigation and become satisfied before pronouncing sentence, that the plea was made freely. The record did not show that such an investigation was had. The Court, without deciding whether the record ought expressly to recite the fact of such an investigation, say they are satisfied that such an investigation was not had, and discharged the prisoner.

11. George H. Carver and another vs. The People. Error to Lenawee Circuit. Brief submitted on behalf of plaintiff in error. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.
